The Month for Music!!

Holy Trinity hosts two musical events that are open to all

Sing-along!

Come join the fun after worship on Sunday, August 19 as we gather on Holy Trinity's lawn (under a tent, weather permitting) to sing favorite camp/'gospel' songs old and newer. An instrumental ensemble will lead us.

Hear a brief devotion and receive inspiration from a LOMO representative who will share the value of faith formation in a Christian camp setting.

After the singing, enjoy favorite picnic foods – hotdogs, potato salad, watermelon, lemonade and s'mores ... provided by Fred Spencer! It's a great time to introduce someone you know to Holy Trinity! †

The next 150th Anniversary event is ...

Saturday, August 25, 7-8 p.m.

Glow in the Park Featuring Kelly Glow

Grace Park, Akron

**Admission is a non-perishable canned food item to benefit DLM Food & Resource Ministry.*

Join us for this special concert featuring nationally recognized Christian rap recording artist, Kelly Glow, the 2015 Gospel Choice Award Winner for Best Holy Hip Hop Artist. Her unique style is a rare fusion of Jazz, Rock and Hip Hop. Kelly Glow was a repeat musical performer at the National Youth Gathering held last month in Houston. †

Fishing with Papa

Pastor David

Some of the dearest and warmest memories of my childhood are those of time spent fishing with my Grandpa Piehl. Off we would go, armed with bamboo poles and worms often dug up from our garden. He taught me how to bait a hook, how to get a catfish off without getting stung, how to set a bobber to keep the bait dangling in just the right place. I don't recall, frankly, that we ever caught a lot. It was just enough to keep us interested. But the time sitting next to Lake St. Marys or alongside the feeder canal with that old German farmer was precious. He was a man a few words and I was 7 years old...so we didn't have deep philosophical conversations. But we had time together and an activity we shared and loved almost as much as we loved each other's company.

Karen and I are headed to Minnesota in August for a visit with son Michael and daughter-in-law Rachel and (now!) three grandchildren...the youngest of whom we've met only via Skype. The older grandchildren, Caroline and Elliott, will be getting a gift from Papa: fishing poles. (Baby Leo's a bit young for this; we'll give him a few years.) And while we're there, we will take the opportunity to learn how to bait a hook, and get the fish off, and how to set the bobber just right. It's a chance to share some knowledge, sure. But more, it's a chance to share precious time with another generation...to enjoy one another's company in a beautiful setting...to let these little ones know that they are as important to me as I knew that I was to my grandpa. And what's the point of all this?

It raised a question for me about how we share what's truly important with those who come after us. It's no secret that the church, in its current configuration, is aging. Baby boomers and, to an even greater extent, their offspring are not as deeply engaged with the faith and mission of the institutional church as generations prior. There are as many explanations for this as there are experts to offer them. But one thing that must be considered is the way in which we have attempted to pass along the legacy we share. Has our focus been on building transformative relationships that connect people to Christ and people to each other as children of God? Or has our focus been on recruiting new members to do what we are already doing so that we can survive in an increasingly secular culture? I would argue that the difference is important. The former has to do with the reason for the church's being: to point always to the redemptive work that God is about and that we get to share. The latter is ultimately all about us. It grows out of our fear of death...our own and that of the institutions and social structures with which we are most comfortable. The gap between these two approaches is the difference between Gospel mission and institutional maintenance...between our Spirit-born excitement to share a joyful and saving way of life vs. our desperate and utilitarian attempt to get folks to do what we want them to do in order to keep the doors open.

HOLY TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

Virginia Stackel lives in Matthews, North Carolina in a retirement community. In January, 2018 she celebrated her 100th birthday. When learning of our 150th Anniversary celebration she wrote the following.

Rejoice – Recall By Virginia Stackel

What a great time for Trinity people to rejoice in the building of two such magnificent sanctuaries within a century and a half! If the edifices could talk, one wonders what they would say. So much has been accomplished by so many and God has been good to Trinity.

My husband, Dr. Robert Stackel, was the Senior Pastor from 1958 – 1972. It was a time of change and growth for the church. Trinity was blessed over those years with a staff of fine associate pastors, dedicated department heads and a group of office workers who kept things going with no notion of what a computer was.

But the most important workers were the lay people. Along with staff Trinity grew in membership and devotion and reached beyond the church walls to the surrounding area and the community. Were there problems? Of course – as in all churches. They were met in good faith and dealt with.

My husband's files reveal his feelings about his ministry at Trinity. He wrote, "It was the best 14 years of my life."

Our 3 children had their growing up years at Trinity. I asked each to recall one main thing that has been an influence in their lives.

John said the youth choir training gave him his love of church music. He is now a soloist in a Lutheran church in Arizona.

Martha will always recall the beauty of the church sanctuary, especially the chancel. She has been head of the Altar Guild, taking care of the chancel in her Lutheran church in Charleston, South Carolina.

Drew appreciated the youth group (then Luther League) and its Sunday evening get-togethers. He has been on the Church Council and done numerous volunteer projects in his Lutheran church in Houston, Texas.

So – rejoice in what Trinity has been in the past, recall what it has meant in your life and thank God for His blessings. †

150 Service Projects

In honor of its 150th Anniversary, Holy Trinity will complete 150 service projects over the next year, and we have already completed several! A list of upcoming service projects will be included in each issue of the Highlights. The goal over the next year is to have every person participate in at least one service project. And, to track our progress and showcase all the wonderful service and outreach activities we complete, photos will be displayed on the large '150' sign that is displayed in the Room 202 hallway.

We are looking for new projects as well. So, if you have ideas, please contact Karen Nevergall. +

Congratulations on Your 150th Anniversary!

Dear Pastor Nevergall,

While at our recent NE Ohio Synod gathering in Akron, how delighted we were to learn that Holy Trinity is celebrating its 150th Anniversary! What an amazing milestone in the sharing of God's word and love.

On behalf of the congregation of Zion Lutheran Church of Wooster, we wish you and your congregation continued blessings in your ministry.

Adult Service Project

We have an exciting opportunity for an adults only service project in November. We will be traveling to New Windsor, Maryland to help for two and 1/2 days in the Lutheran World Relief warehouse. The work will involve processing the quilts, school kits, health kits, etc. that come in from churches across the county and are shipped to those in need.

We will leave from the church, immediately after worship on Sunday November 4. We will work in the warehouse 8 hours on Monday and 8 hours on Tuesday and 4 hours on Wednesday. We will leave for home at noon on Wednesday and should arrive back at church by 8pm. The cost to each participant is expected to be $250 to cover gasoline and motel (Best Western) expenses. We will put two people per room at the motel. Breakfast is included at the motel and lunch is provided at the warehouse on Monday and Tuesday. Each participant will pay for their own additional meals in addition to the $250.

Those who participate will need to be able to work 8 hours a day in warehouse conditions. The warehouse is temperature controlled. There are some jobs that can be done while seated for those who are not able to stand all day.

Please talk with Karen Nevergall as soon as possible if you are interested in knowing more or signing up for this trip. We have friends who do this every year and have always had a wonderful experience. You can contact Karen at Karen.Nevergall@gmail.com or at 419-262-0314. +

2015 Gospel Choice Award winner for Best Holy Hip Hop Artist ... Dr. Kelly Glow

If you usually don't listen to rap music that may change once you hear Kelly Glow. Her unique style is a rare fusion of Jazz, Rock, and Hip Hop. It's fun, funky and full of energy. Her lyrics are clear and easy to follow. Her universal style appeals to all ages. Kelly Glow welcomes you to the Light Movement!

Who is Kelly Glow?

Dr. Kelly Deanna Williams was born in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California. Her parents are Doris, a retired registered nurse, and Rev. O. Dennis Mims, a Lutheran pastor. She has four siblings, Char, Cassandra, Divina, and Jay. During her early years, they lived near the city of Compton, CA. Growing up in Compton, she witnessed and experienced the typical challenges facing low income families in metro urban neighborhoods including: lack of resources, drugs, violence, and gang activity. Through the loving direction and guidance of her parents, she was able to avoid those pressures.

Glow's debut album, Ready for War, was released in 2002, spawning a guest appearance on the main stage at the ELCA National Youth Gathering at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, GA. Her sophomore album, Back to My Future, was released in 2015 garnering a Gospel Choice Award for Best Holy Hip Hop Artist that same year. Glow with Grace, her third project, is an EP fostering the Commemoration of the 500th Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation released in 2017. Used with permission of Augsburg Fortress, the EP features a cover song of one of Martin Luther's most popular hymns "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." Other songs include topics covered in Luther's Small Catechism such as: The Lord's Prayer, The Ten Commandments, The Apostles' Creed and The Holy Sacraments. She is planning the release of another full-length album soon.

In 2004, Kelly married Elijah Williams. For several years, she worked and served as a classroom elementary teacher in Clayton County, GA. Even during her tenure, she couldn't leave her roots in Hip Hop culture behind so she created an educational Hip Hop album titled "The Adventures of KG and ELA." Completion of the educational CD led Kelly to further explore uses of Hip Hop in educational settings. She received her master of science degree from Troy University in 2009 and her doctorate of education from The University of West Georgia in 2015.

Dr. Kelly Glow is continually serving her mission to preserve the original principles of Hip Hop culture "Peace, Love, Unity, and Having Fun!" She is a dedicated "hiphoppa" committed to spreading the culture of HIP HOP (Higher Infinite Power Healing Our People). Her mission in music is to simply be a light in this life which stems the scripture Matthew 5:16: "Let your light so shine before men that they may see God's good work in thee."

That is also the mission of her fan club GLOW GANG which stands for "God's Leading Our Way, Go and Never Give Up." Dr. Kelly Glow is a talented performing artist with a positive spirit, spreading love and light into the world. Let your light shine...

Les Delices Previews New Akron Concert Series with Two FREE Community Performances on August 18

Acclaimed early music ensemble Les Délices (Debra Nagy, Artistic Director) will present two free performances in Akron on Saturday, August 18. These performances preview the group's upcoming 10th Anniversary Season, which includes a new four-concert series at Akron's Holy Trinity Lutheran Church beginning in October. Known for their creative, original programming, Les Délices has been recognized as "an early music group with an avant-garde appetite," whose "concerts and recordings are journeys of discovery" (New York Times).

Les Délices will perform at Harris Stanton Gallery (2301 W. Market Street in Pilgrim Square) in a special music and art open house from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Visitors can stop by to enjoy Les Délices' music and take in the gallery's exhibition An American City: Life in America, A Group Exhibition, which opens on August 16 as part of FRONT art festival presented throughout the northeast Ohio this summer. Les Délices performs again at 3 p.m. at the Akron-Summit County Public Library's Main Library (60 S. High Street). This pop-up concert in the library's High Street lobby will allow guests of all ages to listen to, learn about, and experience Baroque music and period instruments in a casual setting. Early oboe specialist and Les Délices director Debra Nagy plus

Steuart Pincombe (viola da gamba) and harpsichordist Mark Edwards will perform sensitive and thrilling solos by François Couperin, Bach, Marais, and more. Nagy feels strongly about reaching out to the community through the ensemble's free performance series known as LD Steps Out, "We really want to bring our unusual music to places you might not expect and to folks who might otherwise not get to experience it."

In addition to the group's four-concert series that starts in October at Holy Trinity (tickets on sale August 1 at www.lesdelices.org), Les Délices will offer other LD Steps Out events in Akron throughout the season: Les Délices will perform a seasonal Carols program at Haven of Rest in December and will present programming for students at Robinson CLC as part of a partnership with Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. ## How Can You Improve Your Child's Health?

Did you know that making music in a group can actually improve your health? Author Daniel H. Pink cites research in Evolution and Human Behavior that "Choral singing calms the heart and boosts endorphin levels. It improves lung function. It increases pain thresholds and reduces the need for pain medication. It also seems to improve your outlook, boosting mood and self-esteem while alleviating feelings of stress and depression. People who sing in a group report far higher well-being than those who sing solo. It's about synchronizing with others." What can explain this? According to Pink, it's due to the sense of belonging that synchronizing with others brings.

Emily Esfahani Smith, a psychology instructor at the University of Pennsylvania, furthered this point in a TED Talk last year, as CNBC Make It reported. "Meaning comes from belonging to and serving something beyond yourself and from developing the best within you," she said.

Children in grades K-3 are invited to experience this sense of belonging and serving God with the formation of a new training choir at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church (50 N. Prospect St., Akron). Participants will gather weekly to learn basic music skills, create new friendships, and make beautiful music that glorifies God while enhancing their ability to think. Each week children will sing, move to music and play simple percussion instruments.

Weekly rehearsals begin September 23 and continue on succeeding Sundays from 12:45-1:15 p.m. throughout the school year. A light lunch and some social time precede each rehearsal at 12:15 p.m. The group will make musical offerings in 11 a.m. worship services the first Sunday of each month (with no afternoon rehearsals on these days). Membership at Holy Trinity is not required for participation.

Contact Deacon Ruth Anderson for further information and registration (deadline: Sept. 1): 330-376-5154 or randerson@holyltrinityakron.org. +

Denny Wilson with FI Community Housing was the guest speaker for the Worship+Plus program on July 15. He shared his life story that included addiction and incarceration as well as his faith journey that led him to Akron and starting FI Community Housing.

Grandpa Piehl didn't teach me how to fish because he was anxious about dying. He taught me how to fish in order to share his life with me and for me to have a chance to share my life with him. He taught me how to fish because he loved me. And even though we're much farther apart than a bicycle ride across town, I'm hoping that my grandkids in Minnesota get the same message from this Papa.

As Christian persons and as a congregation, we are likewise blessed with such gracious opportunity. Fueled by the Spirit and gifted by God, we are sent into our neighborhoods to love like Jesus loved...to share ourselves in the way that Jesus shared himself...to let folks know by the investment of our time and our resources that they are loved and valued in a deeper, truer way than an often dismissive world has told them. We have a life to share, and it is good and holy and rich.

So...we go with Christ who knows all the best spots. God's unrelenting and abundant love is the "bait." Grab your tackle, friends. It's time to fish. †

Move-In Help Needed

Our DLM Food and Resources ministry continues to expand to meet the needs of our neighbors. The latest addition to this ministry is a clothing pantry opening later this summer. It serves as a replacement for the Good Neighbors clothing ministry that moved from our building earlier this year, and provides yet another important way to be supportive of Project Rise families and others.

We need your help getting this ministry set-up! On Friday, August 3 (6-8 p.m.), and Saturday, August 4 (9 a.m.-Noon), we will be moving in our initial inventory of clothing and the racks. If you can lend a hand, please sign up in the lobby. Got questions? Please see Deacon Marla. Thanks! †

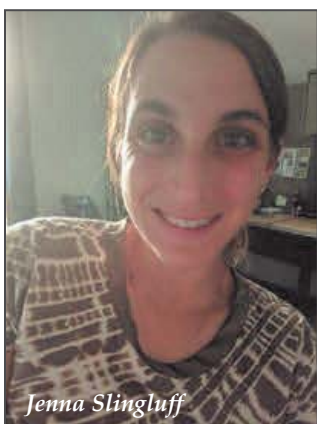

Let me take a moment to introduce myself ...

My name is Jenna Slingluff

I am the new Academy Director at LINKS COMMUNITY SERVICES. I also help in a variety of outreach and service projects such as Senior Connections and our neighborhood beautification/community garden. My plans for the future of LINKS After School Academy is to create a program that is structured while still allowing students to explore and find their own identities.

I graduated in 2013 from Walsh University with my bachelor's in early childhood education. I taught pre-k and Kindergarten for 9 years and have now been blessed to find my way to LINKS, where I can build upon the excellent foundation that has been created through the Holy Trinity Family. I am excited to implement a variety of curriculum plans to make the students learning fun and effective!

If you are interested in getting involved in any way, even for just an hour a week, please get ahold of me! We will work around your schedule, so you can participate in any way you'd be willing or interested! We value the opportunity to graciously accept volunteers into our program, as they are who make the Academy great!

Thanks so much, I look forward to meeting you. †

A Look at the Numbers

It is a privilege to worship, to serve, and to give of ourselves as we share God's Good News with our neighbors and friends. We do that as individuals by the choices we make in everyday life. And we do that together by our work as a congregation. That's what good stewardship is all about. And for that reason, we monitor statistics on attendance and giving to the church. They offer a glimpse into the health of our congregation.

During June, 2018, average weekly worship attendance at Holy Trinity was 137. That's up from an average of 130 per week during June, 2017. Worship is fundamental to the strength of the community and mission we share. It is where God blesses us abundantly in the sharing of the Word and Holy Communion. Thank you, especially during these busy summer months, for making it a priority in your life.

Through the first six months of the year, unrestricted giving to Holy Trinity totaled $202,362. That amount is $16,387 below our budget estimate for giving...a bit of a disappointment, but also a good challenge for us to meet for the balance of 2018. Please remember: Your gifts of time, talents, and funds mean that Holy Trinity can continue to make a positive impact on the Akron community and beyond.

- ✦ Every child and every teacher at Robinson CLC will have the supplies they need for the 2018-2019 school year.
- ✦ 241 persons received groceries from the DLM food and resources party in June alone; more than 1400 persons have been served so far this year.
- ✦ Our heritage of fine music is reaching into area schools and shelters, bringing beauty and joy to places where the benefits of the fine arts are not always available.
- ✦ A revitalized LINKS after school academy offers homework help and enrichment for kids in need who live in the Middlebury and East Akron neighborhoods.
- ✦ Weekly worship and discipleship opportunities strengthen our faith in Christ and nourish members, visitors, and friends alike with the encouragement needed for a life of purpose and hope.
- ✦ Family Promise moves families with children into stable housing, and offers us an opportunity to meet and encourage folks in the process of that difficult transition.

Every gift, large and small, has an impact. Thank you for your attention to your own giving habits. Our ministries are fueled by the Spirit's work among us and by your faithful and generous response to God's gifts to you. Something to consider: More and more folks are moving to electronic giving means, and we have the ability to accommodate that, too. Many find that it is an especially convenient way to manage financial stewardship. Contact Rick Kimble, our financial secretary, for more information about available options and/or to set it up.

Your faithful participation by means of worship, work and support bear witness to the significance of Christ's place in your life. It says to others that what you believe is important enough to affect the way you live. Thank you for being good stewards of the gifts with which God has equipped you. And remember to join us...this and every week...as the work of Christ's Church goes on. †

Communion Bread Recipe

Ingredients:

- 1½ cups whole wheat flour
- ½ cup regular white or bread flour
- ¾ teaspoon baking soda
- 3 tablespoons butter (unsalted is best; may substitute margarine)
- ¾ cup warm water
- 3 tablespoons honey
- ¾ teaspoon salt

Directions:

- Combine the first four ingredients well. Cut in the butter, and work in thoroughly.

- Combine the water and honey. Stir this into the flour/butter mixture, and combine until you have a sticky dough.
- Turn out onto a board/counter, adding flour until you can knead it. Knead until smooth.
- Divide the flour into four equal parts. Roll or press each part into a 6" flat circle.
- Lightly score a cross into the top of each circle. Brush with vegetable oil. Place onto a lightly-greased baking sheet.
- Bake at 350 for no more than 12 minutes. (Over baking makes the bread crumbly.)
- Remove and allow to cool completely.
- When cool it can be bagged for use later in the week or bagged and frozen for use up to three weeks later.

Dear Karen & Members,

We want to thank you so much for your group volunteering to hand out ice cream during our Lunch Barbeque on June 29 and purchasing the ice cream, too. Your group of ladies were so friendly and generous with their ice cream distribution. You offered several flavors and the sprinkles were a big hit, too. It was a hot day, but fun was had by all.

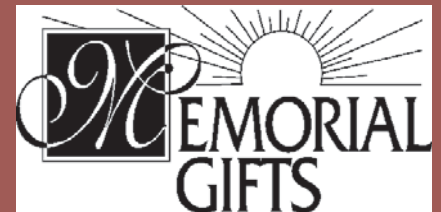

OPEN M is so lucky to have your church partnering with us over many years. Thank you and your congregation for the continued support.

Bob Titus
 Executive Director
